Holiday Shopping on Amazon?
Don’t forget to go through smile.amazon.com and link to Brent. Works with Prime and the school receives a percentage off each purchase. Happy shopping!

2017 Gala Survey
Families, please be on the lookout in your email this week for a survey from Survey Monkey seeking your input for the 2017 Gala. We hope to get 100% family participation in the survey. Thank you for helping us to make this year’s event a wonderful experience as you have done in the past.

Book Fair a Success
Thank you to all the volunteers and shoppers who support the book fair. The event raised $2,000 for the library.

What’s all the BUZZ at Brent? The Spelling Bee Season is HERE!
It all begins with the Classroom Spelling Bees that will be held on Monday, December 19th. Each class in Grades 3-5 will hold its own Spelling Bee to determine who will represent that classroom in the Brent School Spelling Bee. Only the top four spellers from each class will move on to compete in the School Spelling Bee to be held on January 13th.

Brent Students to Dance in Jazz Hip Hop Nutcracker
Eight of our students are dancing in this year’s Jazz Hip Hop Nutcracker. The show has three performances the weekend of December 17-18. Produced by Momentum Dance Theatre on Barracks Row, the show is a unique twist to the typical Nutcracker, set to music from Duke Ellington’s Nutcracker Suite plus hip hop and contemporary and classic pop, funk, and salsa. The students – fourth graders Ingrid Dirren and Sabine Ballou-Aares, second graders Clara Merrick, Olive Woodring Adler, Elsie Murray, and Ava Martin, and first graders Aubrie C. and Giselle Gage-Adams – practice weekly at Momentum’s studio on Barracks Row. All performances are at Wilson High School. For more information, see http://bit.ly/2gSV8us. See photo.

Ensure Your Child Arrives On-Time
As we move into the new calendar year Brent is asking for your attention and assistance in ensuring that your student arrives on time!

-Provides our teachers with the opportunity to work with our students without interruption.
-Supports improved social interactions in morning meetings
-Supports your child’s academic engagement and success by preventing them from falling behind and losing confidence in their academic abilities.

Brent is committed to this effort. We have developed action steps to make this a priority.

- When an in boundary or out of boundary tardy problem continues beyond 10 tardies, an administrator or school social worker will meet with families to address the concern, problem solve, and create an action plan.
- If an out of boundary family reaches or exceeds twenty late arrivals, the principal or his designee will recommend the family return to the base/neighborhood school in the coming school year.

Our goal is to support our students with a positive start to their child’s day. We ask parents to do your part by preparing as much as possible the night before and planning ahead for traffic, delays and other unexpected situations. We are confident families will make arriving on time to school and ready for learning a priority for the remainder of the school year. If you have questions, please contact Denise Diggs at denise.diggs@dc.gov.
